390. G. I. CAMBRENSIS VITA GAUFRI DI. T. James 65

Vellum, 8 3/4 x 5 7/10, ff. 1 + 35, double columns of 26 lines. Cent. xii late, xiii early, in a clear good upright hand. The book is a good deal stained in places.

Collation: 1 flyleaf, 1 (three) 28–58 (or six with two smaller leaves added in the middle).

This is the only known MS. of the text, which was last printed by J. S. Brewer, Girald. Camb. Rolls, Vol. iv, pp. 357–431.

The flyleaf has Parkerian notes and a title of cent. xv:

In hoc vol. cont. vita Gaufridi eboracensis archiep.

Contents:

Introitus primus. . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . p. 1
Uarias rerum humanarum uices
Good initials, gold on blue edged with green, salmon pink within, and silver.
Capitula, p. 3. Two good initials of the same character.
Introitus secundus, p. 5.
Inc. liber de promotionibus, etc. in blue . . . . . . . 7
Initial of text, gold on blue, salmon pink within. Half-length of Geoffrey in mitre, green chasuble with pall, over blue, holding long cross and blessing. Edged with green.
Lib. 11, p. 29, decorative initial as before: another on p. 30.
A Parkerian copy of a marginal addition is added on a slip opposite p. 38.
pp. 61–64 are of smaller size.
There are a good many marginal additions not uniformly noticed as such by Brewer, but incorporated into his text. They are in another, but not much later hand. The text ends 35b:

The remainder is to be found in the Symbolum Electorum of Giraldus of which the only complete copy is at Trinity College (R. 7. 11). From this Brewer has printed it.

391. Portiforium Oswaldi. K. 10 T. James 115

Codex crassus in 8vo, circa annum Domini 1064 exaratus, ut fas est conjicere ex tabulis nonnullis et ex scriptura codicis, cui titulus

PORTIFORIUM OSWALDI, et qui quondam pertinuit ad ecclesiam Wigorniensem, sicuti sibi pertinent hae inscriptio super imam partem paginæ primæ litteris recentioribus, "Liber sanctæ Mariæ Wigorniensiæ ecclesiae per sanctum Oswaldum—" verba quædam abrasa, quorum loco hæc scriptur Joannes Jocelinus “Est ementita