On p. 266 a very faint old pencil note beginning Symmachus papa constituit.
On p. 264 is a passage about Robertus aquinensis cenobii quintus abbas. Parker writes in the margin in red chalk forte hic robertus scripsit supplementum sigiberti ad annum 1182. hoc supplementum habet m[0] patey (Patten) in parochia aldermanbury.

This MS. is noted as C I in MGH. Scriptores VI p. 290. It is there said to be of the ‘familia Atrebatensis.’ The only peculiar additions which it has are at the years 640, 698 (‘depositio eximii patris nostri Bertini’), 807, 820, which show it to have been either written at St Bertin’s or copied from a Bertinian archetype.
